Local students. Global Travel.

About Sarah...

Sarah loved adventure. In her short years she had traveled to Spain, Switzerland, France and Italy. She had driven with her father to Iowa and back. She jumped off the cliffs of the Dorset Quarry... jumped off a bridge into the White River... jumped into waitressing at the local tavern. She had explored Washington DC, New Orleans and the NASA Center in Florida where Sarah was inspired to become an astronaut. She pounced on life and shared her joy with all who knew her. Sarah was 16 on Mother's Day 2009 when she died in a car accident at Transfiguration

Farm in Brandon, Vermont. The purpose of the Sarah Leary Scholarship Fund is to give high school students with financial challenges an opportunity to see the world so they, too, will live an inspired life.
